

Discipleship Opportunity Reflection

Reflection is a critical part of a service-learning experience. Students who take the time to reflect on their service experiences will get more from those experiences. This is why reflections are a required part of Confirmation preparation. Reflection helps students thoughtfully process their work of service. It helps them critically assess and understand what they are seeing and doing. It allows students to be the hands and feet of Jesus.

INSTRUCTIONS

Choose 1 of your discipleship opportunities; in an email, answer the following questions as you reflect on how you were the “hands and feet of Jesus”. Submit to mspaperwork@stjoanofarcpowell.org.

1. Describe your discipleship opportunity, how did you help others, how did it help you?
2. Describe a person you encountered during your time of service who made a strong impression on you, positive or negative.
3. How does this organization or group you helped address the needs of others?
4. What were your reasons for choosing to reach out as the hands and feet of Jesus to this particular organization/opportunity?
5. What was your attitude toward helping others prior to beginning?
6. After completing the service project, what were some of your thoughts and feelings about being the hands and feet of Jesus?
7. Did this experience change your attitude toward service? Explain.
8. How does the role of discipleship relate to your faith in the life of a follower of Jesus?
