"...they took him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord..."

—Luke 2:22

"Act, and God will act" is not just a quote attributed to St. Joan of Arc. It is a motto to live by everyday. Mary and Joseph took their son Jesus to present him to the Lord in the temple at the appropriate time according to the law of Moses. Their action was met by God's action in the confirmation by Simeon that indeed the child was the Messiah. Are we able to act in presenting our best to the Lord in the temple as Mary and Joseph did? Are we able to act in proclaiming the Messiah in the public square as Simeon did?
